You are invited to Climate Action Network’s (CAN) 25th Anniversary Gathering. CAN is the world’s largest network of civil society organizations working together to promote government action to address the climate crisis with more than 900 members in over 100 countries.

On Monday, June 16, 2014 in Bonn, Germany, CAN is hosting a day’s discussion reflecting on the state of the climate movement, followed by a reception and evening celebration of 25 years of organizations coming together as the Climate Action Network to fight for the climate.

We’re asking you to join us and contribute your expertise to the climate movement in order to achieve a global deal, a low-carbon future and engagement with the citizens of the world calling for climate action.

Registration closes May 31. Confirmations will be issued on a rolling basis.

Further details will be sent to confirmed participants.
